Helping Grieving People - When Tears Are Not Enough is a handbook for care providers who provide service, support and counseling to those grieving death, illness, and other losses. This book is also an

Access Free Not Everyone Is Nice Helping Children

excellent text for academic courses as well as for staff development training. The author addresses grief as it affects a variety of relationships and discusses different intervention and support strategies, always

Access Free Not Everyone Is Nice Helping Children

Cognizant of individual and cultural differences in the expression and treatment of grief. Jeffreys has established a practical approach to preparing grief care providers through three basic tracks. The first

Access Free Not Everyone Is Nice Helping Children

Learn: Heart – calls for self-discovery, freeing oneself of accumulated loss in order to focus all attention on the griever.
Second track: Head – emphasizes understanding the complex and dynamic healing available.

Accompanying these three motifs, the Handbook discusses the social and cultural contexts of grief as applied to various populations of grieverers as well as the underlying psychological basis of human grief. Throughout the book, Jeffreys presents the role of the caregiver as an Exquisite Witness to the journey of grief and pain of bereaved family and friends, and also to the path taken
