I am an elementary librarian and I was looking to new books to read to 2nd grade and under. I chose The Haunted House and the kids all really enjoyed it. It is a Choose Your Own Adventure book right at their level (2nd grade especially). All the classes wanted me to start so they could make different choices to lead to a different ending.

The Haunted House is a 'Choose Your Own Adventure' where your actions determine the story. On each page you are presented with a situation and then have to decide how you want the lead character to react. Think of it as being like an interactive book. The Haunted House takes place in the Haunted Woods and is self explanatory when you open it.
